A Card

This is to certify that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound does not contain any opiates, any habit forming drugs, or any ingredients that could possibly harm its users. On the contrary, its great healing and soothing qualities make it a real remedy for coughs, colds and irritations of the throat, chest and lungs. The genuine is in a yellow package. Ask for Foley's Honey and tar compound and accept no substitute. Will Marlar Pharmacy.

Scene at Cliff Dwellings, Flagstaff

Attorney J. E. Jones left last Wednesday morning for Ohio points on legal business. He will be absent about ten days.

In this issue of The Sun are a number of cuts which illustrate well many of the beautiful places adjacent to and within the city of Flagstaff. We call the attention of the visitors to them.

J. M. Rasmussen of Los Angeles arrived in the city the first of the week. From his conversation it is suggested that he will probably make Flagstaff his home. He is accompanied by Mrs. Rasmussen and little daughter.

Toney Faust Beer served in cold stine at The Office Bar; nothing better.

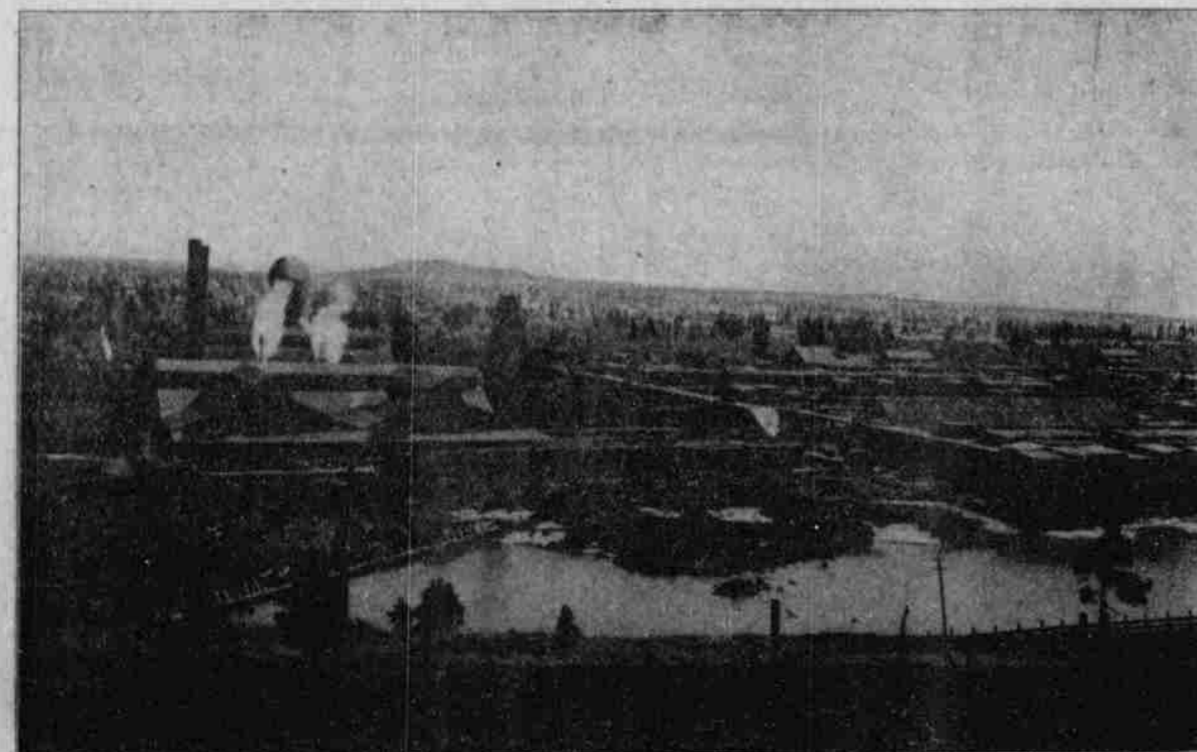

H. P. Marble and daughter of Tuba were in the city the first of the week, returning in Mr. Preston's big auto Wednesday evening.

A. E. Whitlock of Chicago, was in the city this week in the interest of the new school book system, which is being installed in many of the schools throughout the country.

A cold stine of Faust—nothing more refreshing in hot weather. The Office Bar.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonsful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a God-send to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at Babbitt Bros.

What "Mammy" Wanted Most

A wandering peddler stopped at a southern cabin and opened his pack.

"Mammy, let me show you some self-raising umbrellas," he began.

"No use, man; no use," interrupted the old woman, as she busied herself about a boiler of clothes. "Cayn't use nothing lak dat."

"How about self-raising window shades?"

"No good heah, kase day ain't any windows wuff talkin' about."

"Self-raising buckwheat?"

"No good to me—we eat cohn pone. But, mister—"

"Well mammy?"

"If you'll tell me how to tuhndese beah fohteen bad chillun into self-raisin pickaninnies, ah'll be you' fren' foh life, dat ah will, sah."—Exchange.

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hansen, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."

My husband asked me to try Cardul. I felt better after the first bottle, and now, I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardul.

Cardul is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

For more than fifty years, it has been used by women of all ages, with great success. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

N. B.—Write for: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment of Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.
